

Revella Ann Bell

March 26, 1922 - July 7, 2003

Revella Ann Bell was born in Meherrin, Virginia on March 26, 1922. She was the daughter of James and Wisa Pink Rowlett. God called her home on July 7, 2003. She attended Lutheran School in Meherrin. In her young adult years she moved to Baltimore where she married Herman Alfred Miller in 1940. They were together until his death in May 1958. Revella later married Singleton Bell in December 1968. She was a God-fearing woman who encouraged others to seek the Lord. For many years she sang alto with the St. Phillips Lutheran Church Choir. As her walk with God deepened, she was moved to join Christian Life Church to continue her walk with the Lord. Revella was the head of household and would minister to those in need. She would often shop for other elderly sick and shut in until her health began to fail her. She is survived by: one sister, Rosetta Jones; nine children, Norma, Junious, Herman, Patricia, Ronald, Karla, Ricardo, Martin and Karen; nineteen grandchildren, twenty-one great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of other family members and friends.

“ Hi, Ma. Karla & I visited you on 9/07/03. It's been two months already. I love and miss you so much, especially those long talks we used to have. I know your journey is over & you're in a much better place. You're at PEACE & REST now. You so deserve it. You fought the long & hard battle. My grand children miss you too..Jasmine, Donree, Donovan Jr, Bryce & Nolan, too. Though I miss you I'm happy for you now..NO MORE PAIN..Watch over us, please, will you? Bless you. Love & miss you sooo much, Yvette (Donovan, Sr & Damon say 'Hi')###imported-begin##Yvette###imported-end##

“ When I come to the end of the road And the sun has set for me I want no tears in a gloom-filled room Why cry for a soul set free Miss me a little but not too long And not with your head bowed low Remember the love that we once shared Miss me but let me go For this is a journey we all must take But I'll not be alone It's all a part of the Master's plan A step on the road I am going home Miss me but let me go. Our prayers and love are with you and your family Wai ,Tami Gregg, Tiffany & Charlene##imported-begin##Wai, Tami & Family##imported-end##

“ I watched you fade into the "Sunset"....then GOD met you on the horizon, took your hand and gently led you home to be with Him. We all loved you...but GOD showed a greater love by relieving you of your suffering. Rest in peace, Auntie.##imported-begin##Reginald F. Rowlett##imported-end##
