

Rex C. Walters

April 13, 1960 - February 24, 2018

Rex Cornell Walters, the son of Jettie Smith and the late Melvin Bolden was born on April 13, 1959 in Lancaster, VA. Rex departed this earthly life on February 24, 2018. Rex was the eldest of 7 siblings, 6 males and 1 female. Rex was also blessed with two surrogate Fathers, Mr. Julius Mayo, Jr. and Mr. Larry Smith (preceded him in death). Both helped to raise him.

Rex graduated from Lake Clifton High School (Baltimore City) in 1981. He worked as a Security Guard for many years. Family members jokingly refer to Rex as "too smart"-but funny! Rex was a very private person. Just like his Mother and niece Toya. Rex was a great writer and poet. He was the Family Baby Sitter. He kept all the kids in the family-from his brother and sister to their children and finally their children. They all loved Uncle Rex! He loved to dance (even though he had very little dance Skills)-LOL! Rex could get the women on the floor. He was known for "getting the party started." Often times when Rex was speaking, family members would have to say, "Rex, what are you talking about?" Rex had a way of starting in the middle of conversation. He also had a propensity for cell phones-every month he had a new one with no idea how to operate it! Rex had nicknames for every family member. His love was genuine and he will be missed. Our beloved, Rex Cornell Walters is gone, BUT TO OUR GOD BE THE GLORY. WHAT A GREAT THING HE HAS DONE!

Rex leaves to cherish his memory, his loving mother Jettie Smith, one sister, Linda Mayo-Ghee; three brothers, Charles, Anthony, and William Mayo, Sr;

one sister-in-law, Lureko Mayo and one brother-in-law, Lamont Ghee. Two brothers, Jeffrey and Julius Mayo, Jr. both preceded Rex in death; four nieces, LaToya, Shannon, Tiara, and Charlene; two nephews. William, Jr. and a host of other relatives, family and friends.
