

R. G McPhail

June 8, 1934 - November 1, 2002

R. G. McPhail, son of the late Willie and Sallie McPhail, was born on June 8, 1934 in Clinton, North Carolina. He departed this life on November 1, 2002, after a lengthy illness. He received his education while living in North Carolina, followed by entering the United States Army, where he served his country with pride and honor. Upon his discharge, he met his soul mate Mary McPhail who became his wife on May 24, 1958, whom he was married to for forty-four long years. Preceding him in death was his son, Robert Gregory McPhail. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Mary McPhail; son, R. G. McPhail; daughter, Lisa McPhail; sister, Ernestine Wells; four granddaughters, whom he loved dearly, Marria McPhail, Jessica McPhail, Dashyra McPhail and Barbara McPhail; and his nephew, Oscar Lee McPhail, who loved his uncle very much; and a host of nieces, R.R., known to many people as "Mr. Mac," will be missed dearly. My Husband Well... forty-four years together. We talked a lot, we battled our trials. We've seen a lot, we've conquered our tribulations together. But our love for one another has helped us to withstand it all. Forty-four years God truly blessed us. Honey, I love you... Rest and let God take care of you. Mary
