

Rhonda M. Ward

March 8, 1961 - March 4, 2016

Rhonda Michelle Ward, was born on March 8, 1961 in Baltimore, MD to the late Anita Washington and Albert H. Ward. Rhonda was one of the sisters amongst the nine-teen siblings of which God blessed her parents with on March 4, 2016, God called upon his child and took her under his wing. Journey of eternal life.

Rhonda received her education through the city of Baltimore, board of educational schools; she also expressed one of her happiest achievements being a graduate from the one year college nursing program at P.I.C.

Even though Rhonda struggled with life crisis, she accepted our heavenly father. "Jesus Christ", as her personal savior. She became a member and began singing on the choir at The new Trinity Church of America at 3204 Presstman Street.

She leaves behind to mourn: her prince, Traell Ferguson and her princess, Katricia Ringgold, "as she would say" grandchildren: Timothy, Kilik, Si May, Sha'Lay and Nova; her siblings: (sisters) Darlene and Michelle, (brothers) James, Albert, Jr., Charles, Darnell and David and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
