

Richard A. Winn

January 7, 1930 - September 11, 2002

“There comes a time for all of us when we must say good-bye. But faith and hope and love and trust can never, never die. Although the curtain falls at last, is that a cause to grieve? The future’s fairer than the past, if only we believe.” Richard Anthony Winn, III. departed this life on Wednesday, September 11, 2002. Known as “Skippy” in his hometown and lovingly called “Rich” by his wife Elizabeth. Richard was born January 7, 1930 in Wilmington, North Carolina. He was the oldest child of Richard, Jr. and Anna Winn. He attended St. Thomas Catholic and Williston Industrial High School in Wilmington. After graduating from high school, he turned down a scholarship to attend A & T College, which he had been awarded because of his skill in brick laying. This art he had learned from his father and grandfather. Instead, he chose to enlist in the U.S. Army in 1948. He served two separate stints in the army and was awarded two honorable discharges. In one of his tours of duty, he fought in the Korean War. After coming back home, he stayed for a few years and then migrated to Baltimore, Maryland. It was in Baltimore that he met and married his wife, Elizabeth Simms. He worked for a number of years for Hutzler Brothers Department Stores and later Giant Foods, Inc. He retired from Giant Foods, Inc. He retired from Giant Foods after becoming ill. His favorite Past time was working in his yard. He continued to work there until he was advised not to because of his heart. After years of declining health, pain and suffering, death came on Wednesday, September 11, 2002. He leaves to mourn his beloved and devoted wife Elizabeth, two sons,

Richard Winn, IV and Curtis Winn, three daughters, Jacqueline Genwright, Vera Moore and Constance Greene; sisters, Gloria W. Covert and Sharon Hebb-Clemons; daughter-in-law, Denise Winn; sons-in-law, Melvin Genwright and James Greene; nine grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and a host of friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Richard A. Winn

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Richard A. Winn

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ For each hour of your loneliness I wish you a day of comfort; with each moment of grief, a year of peace; and for every tear; a thousand reasons to smile.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM