

Richard Booker

April 20, 1933 - September 21, 2016

RICHARD BOOKER, son of the late Martha Booker, was born on April 20, 1933 in Meherrin, Virginia. He was raised by his grandfather Charles Booker after the passing of his mother at an early age.

He received his education in Meherrin, Virginia under the Prince Edward County school system. In 1951, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Richard later met and married the former Dorothy Louise Coleman in 1956. He was married for 58 years to Dorothy who preceded him in death. Richard was employed at Bethlehem Steel for forty years. He retired from The Steel in 1993.

Richard, also known to many as “DadaRich”, loved to hunt and fish. Over the years, he held memberships in two hunting clubs: Jolly Men’s and the Pioneer Hunting Club. If he were not hunting or fishing, he loved watching soap operas and anything involving hunting or fishing.

Richard leaves to cherish: one godson, Tyrone Pratt; godgrandchildren Bryant Pratt, Tyler Pratt and Deandre Sutton; one brother-in-law William Banks; eight cousins in Maryland, Margaree Cox, Elwood and Evelyn Cox, Russell Shiplet, Evelyn Cox, Barbara Cox, Kevin Cox and Elsie Booker and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry to learn about the death of your most precious loved one Richard Booker. Please know that our loving heavenly father Jehovah cares about us deeply. He assures us that our loved ones will live again by means of the resurrection made possible by the blood of his dear son. Please know that our loving heavenly father Jehovah never meant for us to die. The bible explains that death came about because of Adam's sin. ROMans 5:12 His son provided the means for us to live again by giving his life for all mankind. Jehovah knows and understands the pain that death brings. That is why he promises that soon all suffering, pain and death will be no more. Rev21:3-4 Please do not let your hearts be troubled. Your loved one Richard is only sleeping. Soon he will return to life! What a wonderful time that will be! Once again I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one!
