

Richard Cheatham

May 5, 1920 - September 27, 2005

Richard Cheatham was born May 5, 1920. He departed this life September 27, 2005 after a lengthy illness at Johnston Willis Hospital. Richard lived in Chesterfield, Virginia where he attended school. He later moved to Richmond, Virginia, where he met and married Isean Taylor. They were married at City Hall in 1942 and as of now they've been married for 63 years. During that time they moved into a house on 2009 Rose Avenue where everyone they knew was welcomed with no argument. Richard loved working with his hands putting things together. He worked at Frank Knotts as a machine operator for 20 years. He was a member of Trinity Baptist Church. One thing you could always remember of Richard is his love for Churches Fried Chicken (mainly the breast). He will always be remembered in our hearts. Cherishing Richard's memory: is his devoted wife (Isean Cheatham), one sister, Mildred Slater; devoted, daughter, Geraldine E. Dewitt; three sons, John Taylor, Ermma Taylor and Curtis Taylor; two devoted granddaughters, Mary A. E. Dewitt, Charleathea Muldrow; four grandsons, Melvin W. Dewitt, Schuler Dewitt Jr.; Curtis L. Dewitt, Calvin L. Dewitt; and a host of other grand, great grand and great-great grandchildren as well as other family and friends.

“ Hello to the family and friends of mr.cheatham. Just wanted to share a cheerful thought with you from the bible. The bible can really refresh us when we feel low or mourn for our love ones. At romans15:4 it says we gain hope from the bible. One such hope is that there is going to be a resurrection mentioned at acts 24:15. I gain much hope in knowing that one day soon we will see our loved ones again. The bible lets us know that our dead loved ones will never again have to grow old and die. I long to see the time when all will be healthy and peaceful, the bible promises that will happen very soon. We know almighty God can not lie(numbers 23:19). Very soon we will never have to mourn and grieve ever again because of losing our loved ones.##imported-begin##O.Crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of the late Richard Cheatham: I would like to express my condolences to you at this time, death is a shock to us all and brings no comfort. Did you know the bible holds out a hope for all of mankind who loses some one in death, at John 5:28,29 Jesus speaks of a time when all in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life. Isn't that a lovely thought. Jesus also speaks, also of a time when the earth will be a paradise as brought out in Luke 23:42,43. The bible tell us that Jehovah God who is the father of all tender mercies and comfort will bring your family that comfort in your time of need as brought out at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 isn't that a caring God who would look after us in our tribulation. Please enjoy your memories of Mr. Richard Cheatham as they will bring you comfort as I hope this letter will bring you some comfort. There is a opportunity for you to learn more at John 17:3, which brings this out. Always remember Jehovah God and Jesus Christ do care about your family as you go through these times. My Deepest Sorrow Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. The Bible at 1 Corinthians 15;26 rightly calls death our "enemy" that same verse assures us that death itself will be "destroyed". What about our dead loved ones? Daniel 12:13 promises- "And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life." May these divinely inspired promises give you much hope and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
