“ While I am sadden to learn that you're mourning the loss of your beloved Richard Edward Christmas, I am also sure all who knew and loved Edward Christmas are mourning as well. No doubt, you have many fond memories which will resurface from time to time. May those memories and GOD's words in the Bible bring you some measure of comfort. Ps 34:18 states HE is close to the brokenhearted and crushed in spirit. Please accept my condolences at this most distressing time

“ My deepest sympathy in the passing of cousin Richard. Although I only met him once or twice, I was closer to his Sister "GiGi". I pray the family will keep the strong memories of how his life affected others. May you find much comfort and peace as you go through this transition. Fondly, Sylvia Juanita Ransom Fletcher

“ Please accept our sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Isaiah 26:19 provides the resurrection hope where it says.".... and the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." May this promise ease your grief and give you hope.

“ My heart goes out to you n yours Ron, sorry for your loss pal!!! Will Madzarac

Will Madzarac Sr - February 10, 2017 at 06:20 AM

“ It seems unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. When it happens the thought of never again being able to talk, laugh, comfort, or hold your loved one again can be devastating. My condolences go out to the family. As you prepare to lay your loved one to rest, may you can find comfort from your Bibles at Nahum 1:7. God is a stronghold for the distressed.
