

Richard Lylod Cunningham

May 20, 1943 - May 27, 2016

Richard Lloyd Cunningham was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 20th, 1943, to the late Lloyd and Ollie Cunningham. He died peacefully on Friday, May 27th, 2016, after enduring a long-term disability.

Richard grew up in Baltimore and attend Carver Vocational High School, where he excelled in sports and played on the varsity basketball team. After graduating from high school Richard enlisted into the military, he worked various jobs, until sustaining a traumatic and debilitating injury caused by an accident.

In spite of his disability, Richard was always in good spirits, and presented himself as happy and content. You could count on him to deliver a joke or two and talk intellectually about current events, especially politics.

Richard was preceded in death by his parents and sister, Louray Tabb. He is survived by three sisters, Josephine Walker, of Baltimore, Maryland, Verina Carrington of Grand Prairie, Texas, Ann Cousins, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives.

Richard was a spirit with a golden heart, and was a loving son, brother and friend to those who loved and cared for him.
