Legacy of Life

In My Father's house are many dwelling places. If it were not so, I would have told you, because I am going there to prepare a place for you. John 14:2

Richard Steven Curry, "Rick", of 1211 Nelson Street in Richmond, Virginia entered into eternal rest on Thursday, July 6, 2023, at home with his devoted wife by his side after a long illness.

He was born June 10, 1960, in Beckwith, West Virginia. He was the son of the late James Russell and Ruth Curry Wheeler. Rick grew up in Mount Hope, West Virginia before relocating to Richmond, Virginia.

He accepted Christ into his life on May 25, 2023. Rick loved playing his base guitar and listening to his old music and trying to give everyone his words of wisdom. His favorite quote was "Today is the first day of your life. Yesterday was history and tomorrow is a mystery."

Richard worked at Richmond Ford for over 20 years in the detail department. One of his hobbies was cleaning his cars and everyone else's.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his daughter, Toshema Curry, and grandparents, Joseph and Georgia Curry; uncles, Joe Curry and Raniele Lane, Sr.

Rick leaves to cherish his precious memories; his wife of 27 years, Janice Mallory Curry; sweet, loving granddaughter, Jahniyah Curry; two brothers, Jeff (Joanne) Curry of Fountain, CO; Henry (April) Wheeler of Spartanburg, SC; three sisters, Miki Oba of Beckley, WV; Robin (Mark) Mann of Tampa, FL; Stephanie (Robert) Hicks of Oak Hill WV; two aunts, Josephine Lane of Rochester, NY and Jean Harbin of Columbus, OH; sisters-in-law, Darlene (Archie) Morris of Beverdam, VA, Barbara (Kevin) Coleman of Richmond, VA, Lisa Edwards, Tia Oakley, and Marisa Crawford of Chester, PA; brothers-in-law, Destree (Jenny) Johnson, of Montpelier, VA, Neil Johnson of Richmond, VA, Johnson, Jamar and Richard Oakley of Chester, PA; three godchildren, Raven, Jordan and Perez; a devoted great-niece and caregiver Destiny Stewart, and a host of nieces and nephews.
