

Richard Davis Crowder,

December 31, 1953 - February 23, 2010

The time has come for me to say farewell. Don't be disheartened or share tears of sadness. God knows best when he took me to rest. Richard Davis Crowder, Sr., third born of seven children to the late Gertie Crowder Glenn was born on December 31, 1953 in Halifax County, Virginia. At an early age, he joined Blue Wing Grove Baptist Church. Richard was educated in the Halifax County Public School System. Upon graduation, he relocated to Richmond, Virginia where he attended Virginia Union University. He worked as a Correctional Officer at the Richmond Penitentiary and later was self employed. Richard leaves to cherish his memories; his wife, Paulette; four children; Richard Crowder, Jr. (Ashanti), Robert Scott, Jr. (Margaret), Armand Scott, Sr. (Shaquilla), Mebeke Scott (Keith), fourteen grandchildren, three sisters; Shirley Glenn, Rosa Palley (Doc) and Anna Thornton (John), three brothers; John Crowder (Jerlean), Dr. James Crowder (Beverly) and William Glenn (Silke), father-in-law; Paul Carter, Jr., four sisters-in-law and two brothers-in-law, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, many other relatives and friends. One devoted friend, Bryon Lee Lewis. Richard was an inactive member of the Mason and the Eastern Star Affiliations. Richard coached football through the Little League Football Association where he was dearly loved and received ten championships. Go ahead and take your rest, we loved you dearly but God loved you best.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like extend my condolences to the family and friends of Richard Davis Crowder, Sr. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
