

Richard E. Hurley

December 18, 1912 - March 5, 2004

Richard E. Hurley, Sr., son of the late Thomas and Emma Hurley was born on December 18, 1912 in Calvert County, Maryland. He departed this life in a peaceful rest on Friday, March 5, 2004 after 19 years of being cared for by his loving and devoted son, Richard E. Hurley, Jr. At an early age, Richard Hurley was baptized at Ames United Methodist Church, where he was a member. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was an avid sportsman and an excellent pool player, participating in pool tournaments throughout the Baltimore and Washington, DC vicinity. He continued to play until his sight diminished. Richard Hurley was an entrepreneur and was employed for many years at the VA Hospital. During the course of his life, he owned and operated a restaurant, store, dry cleaner and Hurley's Billiards located on Carey and Laurens Streets. Ed Hurley, as he was affectionately known, was a legendary figure on "The Avenue." He married the late Catherine Combs Hurley and out of this union four children were born, Ann, Jane, Richard, Jr. and the late Conrad Milbert. Richard was a strong, caring, devoted husband, father, grandfather and friend. He was the "Rock of the Family" whom everyone could depend on in their time of need. He was also a financial supporter of Shiloh A. M. E. Church. He leaves to mourn: two daughters, Ann Young Bey and Jane Hurley; one son, Richard E. Hurley, Jr.; four grandchildren, Kevin McLamb, Sr., Eric Hurley, April Hurley and Andrea Hurley; two great grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren; one sister, Listina Scribner; one daughter-in-law, Carol Hurley; one brother-in-law,

Reginald Combs; two sisters-in-law, Ida Curtis and Lois Combs; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Dear family, my deepest sympathy. Death is something we will never get use to, no matter what race or religion we belong to. We have the hope of the resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous mentioned at Acts 24:15. We also have another wonderful hope, that in the future when the earth is back into a paradise, we will be perfect again and never have to die. That promise is at Isaiah 25:8 ‘He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]. ##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
