“ I would like to express my condolences to Mr. Mays' family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be very painful and difficult to bear that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But God promises to do away with that "enemy" and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Then, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up," according to Daniel 12:2. May you find comfort through a study of the truth found in God's Word, the Bible.”

“ I extend my sincere sympathy to the family of Mr. Mays. I pray that you receive the comfort that you need to get you through this sorrowful time from the God of all comfort. 2nd Cor 1:3,4. One day all of this pain and sorrow will be a thing of the past, because Jehovah promises at Rev21,4 that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." God also promises that there will be a resurrection back to life for those who have died. Acts 24,15, John 5:28,29 One day Richard will open his eyes again under peaceful and happy conditions. I hope that the promise of the resurrection brings comfort and peace to your hearts as you mourn the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
