

Richard Foster

June 22, 1914 - June 19, 2014

richard FoSTer, the son of Robert and Maggie Foster, was born on June 22, 1913 in Chester, South Carolina. He departed this life June 19, 2014, just short of his 101st birthday.

His early years were spent in South Carolina. Richard was drafted into the Army where he served during WWII. After his service in the Army he moved to Baltimore and worked at the Sparrows Point plant of Bethlehem Steel Co. Richard was a skilled tailor and always sharply dressed.

In 1972, he married the former Eugenia Lockley. He dutifully chauffeured Gent to all church functions at Central Baptist Church which he was a faithful member.

A longtime resident of Cherry Hill, he was a quiet man who was loved by friends and neighbors.

He leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Eugenia; brother-in-law, Robert Lockley and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
