“ My condolences to the Family. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. (Isaiah 65:21,22) You can have the hope of being reunited with your dear dead loved ones here on earth. The Bible also assures us: "He will swallow up death forever, And the sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ MEMORIES OF RICHARD JACKSON: During my time at Howard the Drama Department would often bring in seasoned professionals to enhance the learning experience for us student actors ("good though we were"). I first saw Richard Jackson as GOD in "God's Trombones" my freshmen year. His powerful resonate voice made a lasting impression on me. To this day I not only use my voice as Mr. Jackson did, but instruct my theater students to do the same. Junior year I had the privilege of sharing the stage with him in Joseph Walker's "The River Niger". He was "Daddy" Johnny Williams. I was Mo, the militant. I learned from simply being in his presence and enjoyed how he "pushed the emotional envelop" on stage to make me, as a young artist, strive towards excellence. Richard Jackson..you have now joined the ancestors and you made a difference while you were among us.

This is from Howard University's Drama Department's production of Joseph Walker's "The River Niger", directed by Richard's friend Ted Cooper in 1975. Richard was brought in as a Guest Artist. He was wonderful to work with.

AN

Words cannot explain how deeply sadden I feel. Dick and I worked in the same office at HHS. He was more of a mentor than a coworker.
