

Richard Jeffrey

July 29, 1960 - February 12, 2010

RICHARD STANLEY JEFFREYS was born July 29, 1960 to the late Walter C. and Clara Jeffreys. God saw fit to call His child home on February 12, 2010. Richard, who was known as “Biz”, “Robot” and “Crap Game,” was born and raised in East Baltimore. He attended Tench Tillman Elementary, Lombard Middle and Patterson High School. After school, he served our country as an infantryman for the United States Army Reserves for a period of time, after which he was employed at the Department of Public Works and Johns Hopkins. Richard, the eighth of thirteen siblings, was very helpful, dependable, loving and outgoing. In his spare time, “Biz” liked to refurbish houses, was an active volunteer for Bea Gaddy and was a helping hand to all in need. On May 28, 2005, Richard met and married the love of his life, Linda Jeffreys who was dedicated and devoted to him. Richard leaves to mourn: a loving and devoted wife, Linda Jeffreys; stepson, Gerard Smith; eight brothers, Walter, Melvin, Zack, Gregory, Victor, Maurice, Cornelius and Bryan; four sisters, Sherree, Arlene, Carolyn, and Clara; mother-in-law, Hazel Neblett; brothers-in-law, Barry Hunter and Carlos Maddox; sisters-in-law, Joanne Maddox and Friday Jeffreys; uncles, William Bracey (Gloria) and Stanley Bracey (Olivia); aunt, Nettie Bracey; a good and special friend, Anthony Peterson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I send my heartfelt sympathy to the Jeffreys family. May you find much comfort in the promise of the ressurection, because Acts 24:15 lets us know that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrightous. All will have an opportunity to reiceve the gift of everlasting life. Jesus suffered and died to make that possible for all of us. He himslef said, "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance. John 10:10. One day soon the suffering and pain we all go through will be a thing of the past, because Jehovah promises at Rev 21:4 that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more; neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." I pray that you will find comfort in this wonderful promise of the ressurection, and that your precious memories will sustain you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
