

Richard John Williams

July 29, 1939 - November 1, 2009

RICHARD JOHN WILLIAMS (fondly known as “Slick”), son of the late John F. and Virginia E. Williams, was born on July 29, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on November 1, 2009 after a brief illness. Richard spent his earlier years in the community of Holabird, and he started his first job at age seven in the local “colored” store bagging groceries. Later the family moved to Cherry Hill. Richard attended Dunbar High School and later joined the military. He worked various jobs from driving a soda truck, construction, and janitorial supervisor. Richard would greet you with a smile and give you advice if you had a problem. He always had a story to tell. He always kept you laughing and enjoyed being around people. Pennsylvania and Lawrence was his “stomping” grounds. Richard did a lot of things he was not proud of, but he had no regrets. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at a young age, and rededicated his life to Christ in September, 2009. In spite of all obstacles that he experienced, he still managed to stand strong and carry on until the day God called him home. Richard had a loving and caring heart for his children and family. Richard was preceded in death by one daughter, Annette Williams; two brothers, Frank Williams and Ralph Staten; and his sons-in-law, Richard Ware, Harold Robinson and St. Julian Barnes. He leaves to mourn: five daughters, Denise Ware, Angela Williams Faulkner, Dorothy Williams, Jacqueline Williams and Linda Williams; two sons, Richard and Jimmy Williams; son-in-law, Michael Faulkner; fifteen grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren; aunt, Pauline Williams of Detroit; uncle, Robert Williams; a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and a special young friend, Davon McClean. He will be greatly missed by his loving and caring sister, Brenda Williams with whom he shared a special bond.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I have experienced the sorrow of losing a father, a sister, a friend and have experienced the profound sense of loss that comes with that. However, I have also experienced the comfort provided by “the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) If you "draw close to God he will draw close to you," (James 4:8) and will become your source of comfort as well. Please allow yourself to do just this through a study of God’s word the Bible and truly learn how God will fulfill the hope he gave to all of us at Acts 24:15, the hope of a resurrection.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
