

Richard L. Jones

December 31, 1956 - April 21, 2015

Richard Lee Jones, son of the late Richard Gibson and Dorothy Jones was born on December 31, 1956 in Olney, Maryland. he departed this life on April 21, 2015, after a lengthy illness.

Richard was raised in Hilltop, of Ellicott City, Maryland, and he attended Mount Hebron High School, where he played basketball, football and ran track, until he graduated in 1976. After graduation, he was employed by Howard County Government Department of Public Works as a Maintenance Mechanic I. He then married the love of his life, Rayvon Mischelle Boyd, in 1986, and out of this union there were four children, Sahray, Tammy, Troy, and Tori.

In 2005, Richard retired from Howard County Government after twenty-eight years of service. In 2008, he decided to start a second career at Catonsville Community College of Baltimore County, as a Maintenance Mechanic I, and remained employed there while seeking treatment for his illness.

Richard was multi-talented and did all types of handyman services. He loved to hang out at the bar with his friends, having a beer, and playing pool. He loved listening to classic rock music, cooking on the grill (no matter the weather) and going fishing. He had many nicknames such as "Bray", "Bay Brother", "Gip", and "Rich", but to his children he was known as "Mums" because he always mumbled.

He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

He was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Rayvon Jones; son, Troy Boyd; three daughters, Tori Boyd, Sahray and Tammy Jones; one daughter-in-law, Kysha Carter-Boyd; eight grandchildren, Troy, Tori, Keyah, Daymon, Taleah, Kendal, Tyler and Madison; one great-grandchild, Malani; one sister, Joanna Jones (four siblings preceded him in death, Gladys Jackson, Ollie, Robert, and Alex Jones); mother-in-law, Nancy Miles; father-in-law, James Miles, Sr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ There's an open gate at the end of the road through which we must go alone, and there in the light we cannot see, our Father claims his own. beyond the gate Richard finds happiness and rest, and there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best. Lovingly submitted, Rod & Robertann.
