

Richard William Jordan

February 23, 1936 - August 29, 2015

William Richard Jordan, son of the late William and Lula Jordan. He was the eldest of three sons , Ernest and Robert preceded him in death. William was born on February 28, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland . He departed this life on August 29, 2015 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School system. Upon leaving school, he enlisted in the U.S. Army and completed four years with a honorable discharge. Later he became an engineer in Baltimore City Schools and retired in 1991.

There was nothing William would not give to the church, family and friends in need. He was a true philanthropist at heart.

William was married to Grace and out of this union he had one son, David Jordan, both preceded him death.

Richard, as he was affectionately known, danced to his own drummer, and was neither nosey or newsy, he was a student of history, he loved a collection consisting of thousands of records and albums.

He leaves to mourn one aunt, Esther and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
