

Richard Moore, Jr.

May 26, 1926 - March 2, 2011

Richard Moore, Jr., affectionately known as "Big Daddy" and "Uncle Junie", departed this life peacefully on Wednesday, March 2, 2011. He was born in Clifton Forge, Virginia to the late Della and Richard Moore, Sr. on May 26, 1926.

Richard Moore, Jr. accepted Christ as his personal savior and was baptized at Zion Baptist Church in Gala, Virginia. He served in the Navy and later moved to Richmond, Virginia where he worked at A.H. Robins and retired after 35 years of dedicated service. In addition he was a member of the St. James Lodge #300 of Varina. Richard Moore, Jr. was a devoted member of Mt. Vernon Baptist Church of Richmond, Virginia for over 60 years. He loved his church, being known all over the city for his anointed ability to pray. Requests were many for just a moment of prayer with him. Not only was Richard Moore a steadfast prayer warrior, but he also served God dutifully as an usher for many years.

Richard Moore, Jr. had many passions including fishing, traveling, gardening and playing checkers. He loved God, and it was evident in everything he did. He was a devoted husband for over 59 years (He loved his "Mooie!") and a compassionate, fun-loving father. His relatives say he always had a word of wisdom to share. His friends say he always had a smile to show he cared. His church members say his faith was exemplary to all and enduring; his former co-workers by his gentle nature was always so reassuring.

He was preceded in death by his mother and father; brother, Robert Moore, Sr., and sisters, Elizabeth Cooper, Evelyn Merchant and Estelle Rogers. He leaves to cherish his memory: a loving and devoted wife, Rosetta J. Moore; one daughter, Cynthia Gill (Woodrow); one son, Richard Moore, III; two grandsons, Randolph and Eric Evans of California; four sisters-in-law; Phyllis Moore, Annie Lewis, Gracie White (Dr. Andrew White), and Louise Lee; a host of nieces, three devoted Brenda Crawley, Angela Winston, and Elaine Cooper; nephews; a Godchild, Karra Graves; and other relatives and friends, including the devoted Dr. Andrea Pennington/little Miss Siena and Eloise Williams and Megan Smith of Bon Secours Hospice Care.

“ I am sorry to hear about the passing of Richard. He will live on in our hearts. May you attain comfort and peace from our Heavenly Father's inspired words at John 5:28,29 & Isaiah 25:8.

Richard has an array of friends and family, which is evident by all of the support that they have shown during this difficult time.

We all can achieve true peace and serenity by reflecting on his life and personality. Also by drawing closer to our Father will help us as well. (Psalms 83:18)

If there's anything the family needs, please don't hesitate to ask...

With loving care,

“ Mooie, Diane & Ricky: Thank you so much for sharing big daddy with me. He treated me like I was his other daughter and for that I'll be forever grateful. I'll truly miss hearing him say "there's my pretty girl " every time I entered his presence. I'll treasure every moment with him . A precious gem in this family has answered God's call and he will surely be missed but his impact on this family will never be forgotten.

“ *Even though I am little and was a little bit scared,
I could see how you always showed you cared.
I watched from a distance as you poured out your love,
and I know you're resting now with all God's love from above!
Tell Papa I said HI! Love you!
