

Richard Quintin Moses

October 22, 1964 - January 29, 2016

Richard Quintin Moses bka “Ricky” was born on October 22, 1964 to the union of Denies and Elizabeth Moses. He was the oldest child and their only son. He was big brother to three sisters who adored him, and who he could twist around his little finger to do what he wanted. He also trained their children to do what he wanted. Ricky is best known for his love of Pepsi and fried chicken. He was a child of the light, and he loved the light. He could look into the light without squinching. As the old folks would say when you had dimples that deep the angels kissed you on the cheeks, and Ricky had the deepest dimples.

Thanks to the late Mrs. Emma Minturn, Ricky attended The Maryland School for the Blind. He enjoyed campus life in the multi-handicapped where among other things he learned how to swim, and he was the only swimmer in his immediate family. Ricky escorted a lovely young lady to his prom and he was a 1986 graduate. Ricky was blessed to have three loving and caring church families. Brown’s Memorial Baptist Church, Destiny Baptist Church, and Koinonia Baptist Church.

On Friday, January 29, 2016 Ricky chose the road that led from earth to bright glory.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his devoted and loving parents: Denies and Elizabeth Moses, his beautiful and loving sisters: Patricia Moses, Rochelle Moses, and Tanyette Turnage, his loving nieces: TiVonna Allen, Tania Gilmore, Kiana Gilmore, Erika Henson, and Mareasa Kyler; his loving nephews: Bernard J. Murphy (whom proceeded him in death) Dylan Oglesby, Kenneth J.S. Gilmore, and Malik Gilmore. Three uncles: Elmer Moses, St. Clair Turnage, Cephus Hill, Jr. Seven aunts: Ollie Wilson, Ottie Miley, Bessie Moses, Jacqueline Moses, Mary Moses, Ellen Hill, and Maxine Curry. Mazola White, Addie Bagley, Rosanna Miles, Edith Garrett, and The Smith Family, who had a special place in their hearts for Ricky, and a host of other relatives and friends.
