

Richard Vernon Scott, Jr.

November 19, 1930 - January 5, 2011

Richard V. Scott, Jr., aka "Skeeter" was a loving husband; father and friend began his life November 1930. He answered the call to end his journey at the tender age of 80 on January 5, 2011.

Skeeter gave his heart to Ester Mae Miles who bore him five children. Upon her death and for the past 50 plus years his heart has been given to Dorothy Ann Scott.

Quiet, reserved and measured, he was a man of no complaints. His countenance strong, he was always positive. He trusted God, lending his knowledge and skills to many a family member and friend.

He was a hardworking man and dedicated Dad. As a dedicated employee of the Commonwealth of Virginia, Richard served under several administrations as the supervisor for the state's Printing Office on the Capital Grounds. While employed with the state and after his retirement, he lent his talents to many entrepreneurial endeavors in caring for his family. Gifted with many skills, he never hesitated to share his knowledge unabated to all who sought his assistance

"Have you tried my "Apple Pie" a euphemism for his homemade wine; Skeeter offered his brew to all takers.

Affectionately known as "Daddy" "Dad""Pop-Pop""My Duck Man" he loved his family. He was a pillar of strength for many. An only child, raised in a loving home, he insisted on sharing his good fortune with others.

As a crooner, he was an original member of the Virginia Choral Ensemble, joining Cedar Street Memorial Baptist Church at an early age. His gifted voice gave a strong resonance bass-line to his gifted choir. For many years he served the church both as a member of the choir and as Boy Scout Master. A staunch believer, he insisted his children follow in his footsteps in worshipping the Lord.

A loving husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, nephew, brother-in-law, cousin and friend he is survived by his wife, Dorothy, daughters; Symprosa (Aubrey Branch), Stephanie, Vanessa (Harvey Williams) Aquanetta and Gita; sons, Richard, III, Pierre, Larry (Diane Smith) and Daniel (Ida Wright) and a host of loving grandchildren and great grandchildren. He also leaves behind two devoted aunts; Estelle Pettis and Annie Mondrey, a devoted brother and sister-in-law, Charles and Ella Mines, a devoted cousin Vernon Hamilton, as well as many well-loved cousins, relatives and friends.

“ I would like to express my condolences to each member of the family as you cope with the loss of your loved one. A wonderful hope is held out for each one of us as God's children. "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Acts 24:15. Where will this take place, Psalms 37: 10,11, verse 29, "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." May these words be of comfort to you.

Rowland Gaunt - January 10, 2011 at 06:21 AM

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Acts 24:15 informs us that "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful promise that will be made possible by Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.

Sharon Hill - January 08, 2011 at 01:04 PM
