September 3, 1955 - December 21, 2022

The Reflections of Rickey's Life

On Wednesday, December 21, 2022. Rickey L. "Squirrel" Coleman, departed this life, leaving behind his wife of 47 years, Vickie Green-Coleman.

Rickey began this life as one of 12 children born to Helen and Arthur Coleman. He was born on September 3, 1955. To those who knew and loved him, he was affectionately known as Squirrel. He was a loving and social man. Who enjoyed life and being around people. One fateful night, Rickey was destined to meet Vickie at a house party that would change his life. After dancing the night away and walking her home like a gentleman, the two would embark on a 47-year journey of love, struggle, and endurance.

In the year of 980, the two were married. Shortly thereafter they started a small business together, (Coleman Interior Decorating); which specialized in painting. Their partnership continued as they raised three sons together, Jafari, Jaynard, and Kennard. Rickey loved and enjoyed his sons and family and would often throw cookouts to share that love with extended families and friends. If he wasn't surrounded by family, he was often off fishing and hunting. Rickey's love for life will now have to sustain those he left behind. In addition to his wife and three sons, Rickey is survived by six grandchildren, Jashawna, Kendalayah, Jafari, Jr., Nehemiah, Kieran, and Naylani, one sister, Geraldine Coleman; two brothers, William (Drusilla), and Maurice (Monica), three brothers-in-law, Alfonso, Herman and Ivan Green. He will also be missed by a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.
