

Ricky Tyrone Crewe Sr.

November 26, 1964 - March 3, 2017

On March 3, 2017... God visited Room 2252 at Memorial Medical Center and called our beloved Ricky Tyrone Crewe, Sr. to rest. Ricky was born November 26, 1964 in Richmond, Virginia to Iris and Irving Crewe, Sr. He was predeceased by his father and oldest brother Irving Crewe, Jr. Ricky attended Charles City Public Schools and he worked for many years as a Heavy Equipment Operator (which he loved) for K. Jones Landscaping Company until his death began to fail him. He was a member of Corinth Baptist Church in New Kent, Virginia.

Ricky's passions was going to car races, dirt bike races, sitting in his van at his mother's house or at his cousin's house next door talking to everyone through the window and going down to the garage tinkering with something and watching his sons and their friends working on their dirt bikes or riding them. Nine times out of ten when his mother would call him and ask where are you boy his reply was "at the garage".

Ricky leaves to cherish his precious memories his loving children, Rickala (she called his Deddy), Ricky Jr. (Morgan) and Austin; loving mother, Iris Crewe; two sisters, Sharon Logan (Fleming) and Avonda Bryant (Ronald); three brothers, Henry (Elaine), Stephen Sr. and Michael Sr.; sister-in-law, Gail Crewe; three aunts, Lorraine Keeton, Martha Bolden and Alice Charity; one uncle, Clarence Charity; one uncle at heart Edward Crewe (Jessie); special nephew, Trevor

Crewe; one goddaughter, Aisha Greene; a host of other relatives and friends.
He touched so many in various ways and will be truly be missed by all.
