

Ricky L. Hines

February 12, 1953 - January 7, 2005

Rickey L. Hines, son of Linwood Hines and the late Gloria Cooper, was born February 12, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 7, 2005, after a short illness. He received his education in the Baltimore City public schools and later received his G.E.D. He also attended the Community College of Baltimore, and then joined the U.S. Marine Corps. Upon completion of his education he became an employee of the Baltimore City Public School System, as well as the City Public Works Department. Rickey loved music and taught himself to read and write music as he played his original works on his keyboard. Rickey was also a published poet dedicating his poetry to the Lord and to his wife, Lori. Rickey made numerous friends wherever he went. He met the love of his life in 1986, an eighteen-year relationship, and was married on August 31, 2001, to Lori D. Crawford. Rickey was a devoted friend and family man. He will sincerely be missed by all who loved and knew him. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Lori Hines; daughter, Wykeela Hines; son, Jamal Patterson; stepson, Gerald Crawford; brother, Gill Hines; his father, Linwood Hines; two granddaughters, his mother-in-law and brother-in-law, three sisters-in-law and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends including best friend, John.

“ I’m very sorry to hear of Ricky’s passing. I believe we were in basic training in the USAF in March of 78. I remember him wanting to be in the military and being one of our leaders. RIP Ricky

“ To The Family & Friends- My sincere condolences for your loss. Our family finds much comfort from the loving promises found in the Bible. I would like to share some of this comfort with you. Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." The Bible promises a peaceful future for those who wake up (are resurrected) on the earth Isaiah 65:17 promises a "a new earth". Psalms 37:9-11 and Matthew 5:5 helps us to see that the earth will be peaceful at that time. May you be comforted by these divinely inspired promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. At times like this our memories of our loved ones help to keep us moving on. The Bible gives us the hope of seeing them again. At John 5:28, 29 it says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." I hope you can find comfort from this Scriptural promise.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill, Jr.##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
