

Rico Booth

October 2, 1979 - December 26, 2019

RICO BOOTH, son of Carl Booth and Patricia Diggs and raised in love by his stepfather Kyle Bridges, entered this life on October 2, 1979. He transitioned from this earth to heavenly reward on December 26, 2019 after a brief and sudden illness.

The second eldest child received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He enjoyed learning and took to mathematics. Rico had passion for all things mechanical, and took to working on cars, an being all-around handy man. He enjoyed his childhood with his brothers and sisters and made friends who he was still close to.

Rico was blessed with three beautiful children Quantasia, Donovan, and Destiny who held a special place in his heart, and he loved them dearly. Rico received his forklift Operator Certification and worked as a full-time employee at Eastern Recycling Service until his passing. In 2013, Rico married the love of his life, Mechelle. From this union three children were born, Tyrie, Aniya, and Riley. Rico was a devoted and loving family man who enjoyed and cherished the time spent together. Whether cooking out back on the grill or chasing the kids around the house, he and Mechelle made a loving home. Rico and Mechelle loved to travel and enjoyed attending church as a family. Rico's youngest brother, Carols Bridges, preceded him to heavenly reward. He leaves to mourn: his grandfather, Howard Diggs; father Carl Booth; mother, Patricia Diggs; stepfather, Kyle Bridges; his loving wife, Mechelle Booth; children, Quantasia, Donovan, Destiny, Tyrie, Aniya, and Riley; his brothers, Carl Jr., Travon, Deon, Carl, Calvin, Kyle, and Deron; his sisters, Kyleia, Kylite, Tameika and Shania; mother and father-in-law, Mack and Gloria Allison; six aunts, four uncles and a host of other relatives and friends.
