

Rico Mashburn

August 20, 1970 - April 8, 2026

A Time to Be Born:

Rico Damone Mashburn was born on August 20, 1970 to Priscilla E. McCraw and Dennis C. Mashburn in Baltimore, Maryland.

A Time to Learn:

Rico matriculated through the Baltimore City Public Schools System and attended Edmondson High School. He was very adept in mathematics and an outstanding varsity baseball outfielder.

A Time to Showcase:

His skilled hands were exhibited in: penmanship, on the baseball diamond, playing table tennis and self-defense.

A Time to Work:

Rico's craftsmanship as a sheetrock/drywall installer at Rhyland Homes afforded him many bonuses and employee of the month recognitions. He was lastly employed in the maintenance department of Union Memorial Hospital/MedStar.

A Time to Laugh:

Being a prankster, Rico particularly got a kick out of consistently targeting his maternal Uncle Chick. In turn, Uncle Chick retaliated by taking Rico (during his adolescent years) on “unauthorized” escapades. The end results would always land both in hot water with his Mom.

A Time to Be Grateful:

Our God of Mercy, in His infinite wisdom, placed Rico in the stewardship of his mother and loaned him to us for 55 yrs. The providence of God allowed our paths to cross with his on our journeys. The compassionate God of all creation outpouring of grace purposed Rico’s Mom, Priscilla, to be the first to hold him in her arms when he first gasped his first breath of life and also held him in her arms as he took his last.

A Time to Celebrate/Mourn:

He leaves to celebrate his life and cherish the memories: Children: Imani Mashburn, Jairus Ashe; Mother: Priscilla E. McCraw; Aunt: Monica A. Pinkett; Cousins: Melanie Dunham, Michelle Jackson, Bryan Q. Ellis, Sr., Reginald T. Ellis, Sr., Charles G. Ellis, IV, Michayla & Monica Webb. Predeceased: Dennis C. Mashburn, Father; Grandparents: Martha Gibson, Palmer & Florence McCraw; Uncle James (Chick) Powell; Cousins: Andre C. Jackson and a “sisterly” cousin Towanda A. Carter.
