“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family of Riley Cunningham The Hays family would like to express our concern. The loss of a loved one by means of death is a trial which causes many to give serious thought about their future. Please be encouraged to know that 1 Corinthians 15:26 in the Holy Bible states" The last enemy death is to be brought to nothing. Yes this promise of God will do away with death and pain it causes. It is my sincere hope that this verse will warm your heart. Baltimore,Md March 3,2004###imported-begin##Z.Hays##imported-end##
