“ My Cousin Ringoldia was always a bright light in a room of sadness. She had a way of making you feel better even under the worst of circumstances. There was something in her aura, I can't explain it, I guess you just had to feel it. Unfortunately, in the world of we are just too busy with our lives, I did not see her as much as I should have. I regret that. However, she was the type of person that you always remember, love, and admire. I will always love and miss her. But she left an indelible mark on my soul that will always be there. Hopefully, I will meet her in heaven one day, because there is no doubt in my mind she is in His loving arms.

*Your cousin,
Janet Burrell-Warden-Henderson (Mother Charlene Burrell-Warden)*

My husband got a glimpse of her grace as well, and wanted to leave his condolences.

Steven Henderson.
