

Rita Louise Brown

September 9, 1946 - July 18, 2009

RITA WASHINGTON BROWN was born to the late James E. Knight and Maggie Washington on September 9, 1946 in Portsmouth, Virginia. She received her education in Portsmouth Public Schools. She later married Walter Brown (Bubble). They were blessed to receive their son Corey Brown. Rita was a hard worker. She had a great sense of humor and enjoyed making people laugh. She loved children, and she also enjoyed music, board games and puzzles. After a lengthy illness, Rita departed this life on July 18, 2009, at Johns Hopkins Hospital, but not before accepting Jesus Christ as her Savior. She leaves to mourn: her son, Cory Brown; three brothers, Ananias Washington, Vernon L. Washington of Atlanta, Georgia and Edward D. Washington of Church, Virginia; two sisters, Betty J. Lynch and Sadie Jarvis; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ losing our love ones is hard to deal with. We sometimes wonder and ask ourselves if our love one is still suffering. But take comfort at Ecclesiastes 9:5 tells us; ‘for the living are conscious that they will die; but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all.’ Whatever illness your love one experienced, they are no longer in pain. They are in a deep sleep awaiting the resurrection hope mentioned at John 5:28,29 where all those in the memorial tomb will hear Jesus Christ voice and come out. In order for us to be there to see and greet them, we must take time to study the bible, John 17:3 ‘this means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge of you, the only true God, and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ. My deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21: 4, "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes; and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May God strengthen you and your loved ones. Sincerely, C. Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte Bain##imported-end##
