

Rixcy Johns

May 4, 1927 - July 10, 2020

Today we gather to celebrate and acknowledge the new life unto which RixcyUzelia Johns has entered eternal life and in the presence of her God, her Lord and her creator.

A Time to Be Born Rixcy Uzelia, affectionately known as (Red) by many of her close friends was born to the late Major and Laura Horton on May 4, 1927 Wendell, North Carolina. She was the fifth child of ten siblings, the oldest of five girls. Rixcy was called into eternal rest on July 10, 2020.

A Time to Be Saved

Rixcy accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. She was baptized at Riley Hill Baptist Church in North Carolina. Rixcy later attended Gillis Memorial Church under the leadership of Theodore Jackson on Park Heights. Rixcy attended Robinson AME Church under the leadership of Pastor Rev. Randolph Fitchett during her stay on the Easton Shore.

A Time to Love

Rixcy met and married Charles E. Davis, and they moved to Baltimore, Maryland. From this union two sons were born; James (Jay) W. Davis and Charles E. Davis (both deceased). The marriage ended in divorce and she later met and married the late Joseph T. Johns. They made their home on the Easton Shore in Maryland.

A Time to Labor

Rixcy received her childhood education in Wendell North Carolina. She had a thirst for knowledge. She attended Morgan State College, Cortez Peters

Business School and in later years, Chesapeake College. She was employed at the Social Security Administration and the United States Postal Service. Due to her outgoing personality, she decided to change her career to a Star Hostess at various popular locations around Baltimore City. Rixcy enjoyed spending time with her family and friends at cookouts and playing card games with much laughter and fun. Rixcy loved her "old folks" and spent endless hours with them taking them food and reading to them. She loved cooking for everyone. You could always find her curled up with a good book as she had a passion and love for reading. After retirement, she found herself visiting the sick and shut in at various nursing home facilities. Caring for seniors, especially those living alone became her priority.

A Time to Be with The Lord

Rixcy leaves to cherish her memory and rejoice at her entry into eternal rest and peace with one brother, Walter Horton (Lucene), Garner, North Carolina; two sisters, Lavenia Jerald, North Carolina and Learnie Donovan, Baltimore Maryland; two daughters-in-law, Brenda Davis and Cindy Johns from Baltimore, Maryland; grandchildren and great grandchildren; a special nephew, Clyde Horton (Marion); a special son, Arthur Lee, Baltimore, Maryland; special brother, Elias Taylor; special sister, Delores Kirk; goddaughter, Diann Cupid, Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Can someone from the Johns family contact me? I grew up next to Mrs. Rixcy and Mr. Joe and would love to talk to the family. She was a great woman who I dearly miss not being able to attend her service. 4107034346.
