

Roberlee Howell

February 2, 1936 - February 4, 2006

Roberlee Turner Howell, born February 2, 1936 to Robert Turner and Eva Inez Bradley, in Lake City, South Carolina. Our Auntie and friend departed this life on February 4, 2006 after lengthy illness. Robin, (as she was affectionately known) began her education in South Carolina and continued in Baltimore Maryland, graduating from Frederick Douglas Senior High School. She became employed at the Maryland School for the Blind as a Caregiver to visually impaired children. There she dedicatedly attended one child in particular (Debbie) for many years. She met William Howell in Washington, D.C. and they married in August 1967. Robin loved children and although she never gave birth to any of her own, she was mother to three. Aunt Roberlee mothered all of her nieces and nephews, neighbor's and friends children. She was the family historian, being the one in the family who knew just about everything about everyone. Auntie was one of a kind. You could always depend on her to set you straight on matters of the heart, life, and world issues. She was adamant about respect and family ties. She was a believer in Jehovah God's principles of love, faith, patience and perseverance. She loved to do her crossword puzzles, and to cook for family and friends. She also loved playing cards and entertaining. Her favorite pastime was watching TV games shows like Jeopardy and Wheel of Fortune, and Reality shows, Survival and Amazing Race. Roberlee was preceded in death by her son Calvin; she leaves to cherish her memory, her husband William of 42 years; one sister, Helen Davis; two children, Raymond and Anita; five grandchildren, Ivan Adrian, Alexis, Raymond Jr., and Domonic; one great-nephew whom she raised, Dwayne; and a host of other relatives and very dear friends. We will all miss you, and you remain in our hearts forever.

“ *To the family of Mr. Roberlee Howell please except my condolences for your loss. I know this a trying time and comfort is what you need and want. Please know the bible can bring that lasting comfort at 2Corinthians 1:3,4 says: God (Jehovah) is the father of tender mercies and comfort and will comfort us in our tribulation. We long for our love ones to continue with us but for now that is impossible but the bible tells us at (Acts 24:15) that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous here on the earth. Jesus tells us that those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice a come out to a resurrection of life here on this earth. He will be missed but he will not sleep on forever he will have opportunity to live again in better condition. My prays are with your family. “ So sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 tells us that death is the "last enemy" and death will be destroyed. Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think deeply on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ So very sorry to read of the death of your dear loved one. I didn't have the pleasure of meeting my der spiritual sister, but I know her faith in Jehovah"s promises was very strong. She is asleep and not having any more pain, and one day I hope to meet her in Jehovah"s paradise wher there will be no more sorrow and no more tears. May the cherished memories you shared with your loved one as well as the promises of Jehovah God sustain you until that glorious day arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
