“ To friends and the family: We serve the God who designed the universe and set the world in motion. But those hands that hung the stars and in heavens also wiped away the tears of the widow and they will wipe away everyone tears as well. God will hold and comfort us in this time of sorrow. I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy, for you have considered my trouble; You have known my soul in adversities, and you have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy; You have set my feet in a wide place. Psalms31:7-8 My soul, wait silently for God alone, for my expectation is for him. Psalms62:5 I would like to extend my condolences to the family and Uncle Bobby is in a better place and may God continue to look over and bless the family in this time of grievance.##imported-begin##Chanel Shade##imported-end##

“ Please accept my belated condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that death is our enemy, that same verse promises that death will be done away with. What hope is there for our dead loved ones? Acts 24:15 says "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort from these divinely inspired promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
