“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. I would like to leave this thought with you from God's word the Bible because I am sure that it will give you as much comfort as it has me. At John chapter 5 verses 28,29 Jesus himself said that all those in the memorial tombs would, "hear his voice and come out." Yes, the Christ promises us that very soon we can see our dead loved ones again by means of the resurrection. I believe him and I'm sure that you do too! Feel free to contact me at the above address, and again, please accept my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family of Robert. At a time like this words of comfort are sorely needed. Who better to comfort us than our creator. Jehovah through his word the bible tells us that we can look forward to him putting an end to death, mourning, sorrow, outcry and pain. These are the former things mentioned at Rev. 21:4. May these few words provide comfort to you during this time.##imported-begin##T.Taylor##imported-end##

“ My brother ROBERT TYSON. MY ROBBIE WAS TAKEN FROM ME AND IT HURTED LIKE HELL. I WAS NEVER EXPOSED TO ANY TYPE OF PAIN LIKE THIS. I loved him then and still to this day Love my Robbie. He may have been taken physically but mentally he will always remain. And for the person who took his life, what goes around comes around.....##imported-begin##Candice Tyson##imported-end##

“ Especially to the family and sisters of Robert I send my deepest sympathy. I can identify with your pain, because my only son died 11 years ago, and to this day my daughter and I are still hurting. It's something you never get over, but I can say that with the passing of time it does get a little easier to bear. What comforts my family is knowing that there's a hope of seeing our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Jesus has been given all authority to bring many back to life, and John 5: 26-29 says that all those who are in those memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life. But like all good things we receive in life, we must show Jehovah God and his son Jesu that we really want eternal life, and we really want to be reunited with our dead loved ones again. John 17,3 tells us the start of what we must do in order to receive these blessings. Please contact me on my e-mail, and I will assist you further in getting to know God's requirements for life. I'm always available, and I hope that the scriptures can be a great source of comfort to you as you mourn the loss of Robert.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Robert. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you experience much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
