

Robert B. Wright

December 20, 1964 - November 20, 2001

Robert Bernard Wright, son of Willie James and Brenda Wright, was born on December 20, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education in the Baltimore City School System, where he graduated from Northern Senior High School in 1982. Bobby ran into trouble with drugs in his early years, but with the love and support of family and friends he entered a drug treatment program. He met Lucinda Fields and knew that she was a shining star in his life. She helped him turn his life around and he never looked back. Bobby was the epitome of the word “work”. He was an entrepreneur and set an example for others in what it meant to “work hard and make it happen”. He was a tireless provider for his family and friends. He had many business endeavors. Along with being a landlord, his primary businesses, Wright’s Painting Company and The New Lighthouse Restaurant and Pub were the “crown jewels” of his small business empire. Bobby had a zest and passion for life matched by few. He was, as his family refers to him a jolly, free spirited and a fun loving person. His laughter was something that will endure in the hearts of everyone that knew and loved him. He thoroughly enjoyed riding his motorcycle and was an avid snow skier. He was an outstanding father and as caring and giving a man, as one could ever meet. As he prospered, so did his family and friends. He was a man of many talents and he would literally “give you the shirt off his back”. In many ways Bobby was a man of the world. However, he did humble himself before God and sought God’s grace and mercy. On May 28, 1994, Bobby was joined in union with Lucinda Marie

Fields. Out of that union, Brittany Tia Wright was born. He was joined in union to the late Kimberly Thomas Wright and two children, Mia Courtney and Christopher David Wright were born. Bobby leaves to mourn; his wife, Lucinda Marie; five children, Mia, Jason, Christopher, Tiffany and Brittany Wright; his parents, Willie and Brenda Wright; stepmother, Phyllis Diane Wright; four sisters, Sherrie, Valarie, Terri Wright and Linda Wright-Garner; two brothers, Travis and Gussie Lee Scott; uncles, Raymond Marriott, Ray Crawford, James Harris and Alfred Dyer Sr.; aunts, Marie Crawford, Theresa Harris, Jessie Dyer and Sarah Edwards of South Carolina; brother-in-law, Luther Fields; sisters-in-law, Patricia and Monica Fields; six nieces and five nephews, his Kentucky family, Barbara, Lenise, Robert, Lynn and Jackie; mentors, Mr. Donald Scott, Mr. John Mc Mann and Mr. Craig Stokes; employees, and friends too numerous to list.
