

Robert Henry Blackwell

February 12, 1947 - May 8, 2019

ROBERT HENRY BLACKWELL, son of the late Charles Henry Blackwell and Dolores Robertson, was born on February 12, 1946 in Baltimore, MD. He departed his life on May 8, 2019 while his niece, Michelle Dorsey, held his hand as he transitioned. She along with his entire family, let him know he was loved and it was alright to finally let go.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At the age of 21, Bobby (as we all called him) became employed at Venture Vending Company as a full-time employee and remained there for the next 25 years. Bobby was loved by many, and everywhere he went he left an everlasting impression. He was a funny, loveable, and extremely humble man. He helped raise countless children in the family; some of whom were his siblings, nieces, nephews, grands and great grands. Bobby was a God-fearing man who loved his gospel music while having a sip or two. Some called him Danny Glover, but I knew him by Daddy.

Bobby was a longtime visitor of the Pillar of Truth Church as well as a longtime member of Mount Winans Baptist Church.

He leaves to mourn: his former wife and lifetime friend, Edna Blackwell; his five sons, Ellwood, Robert, Darrell, Charles, and Binky; his six daughters, Vanessa, Akisha, Yvette, Ashanti, Asia, and Rochelle; his loving niece, Deshawn Blackmon; his five sisters, Niecy, Mary, Arlene, Carolyn, and Peggy (his two brothers preceded him in passing, Charles and Tyrone); his two brothers-in-law, Chauncey and Ernest; lastly, his eighteen grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren who will remember him always.
