

Robert Blannon, Sr

August 7, 1932 - July 2, 2021

ROBERT BLANNON, SR., son of Thelma Blannon Wynn, was born on August 7, 1932 and was called home on July 2, 2021.

He attended high school in Connell, Pennsylvania. Robert later enlisted in the United States Army immediately after high school. During his time in the military, he served two tours between through 1958 and was awarded two medals of honor and one Purple Heart for his valiant services.

Robert, through his life, was a fun-loving family man and hard worker. He strongly believed his purpose as a man was to provide for his family. After working a long week at Montgomery Wards, he enjoyed taking his kids out for ice cream and a movie. Robert is preceded in death by his daughter Patricia Blannon and son Thomas Blannon.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Mrs. Kattie Blannon; sister, Christine L. Wynn; brothers, Howard Wynn and Thomas Wynn; brother-in-law, Mr. Carl Flemming; sons, Robert Blannon Jr., James Blannon and Walter Blannon; daughter, Barbara McClammy, Yvonne Blannon and Edith McCrae; grandchildren, Phillip Harris Jr., Deandre Harris, Gregory Miller, Tiffiany Blannon, James Blannon Jr., George Wadell III, Siera McCrae, Katherine Blannon and Chantel Waddell; thirty-four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.
