

Robert Mack Bond Jr.

January 27, 1927 - December 22, 2012

ROBERT M. BOND JR., son of the late Robert Bond and Josephine Peeples, was born on January 27, 1927 in Weldon, North Carolina.

Robert received his education in Weldon North Carolina and Baltimore, Maryland public schools.

As a young man, Robert served in the United States Army from 1945 to 1948. He later served in the United States Navy from 1949 to 1953. He was proud to serve his country.

He later met Cleo Patricia Gary in 1954 and they united in Holy matrimony. Through that union three children were born, Cynthia (Renee), Ramona and Robert (Bobby). Robert was a member of Leadenhall Baptist Church.

He continued his Federal career with the United States Post Office where he worked until 1970. Later the Veteran Administration Hospital recruited him. While working at the hospital, he met his longtime friend and caregiver, Denise Walker. Robert retired from the VA Hospital in 1989.

God blessed Robert in many ways and those who knew him will truly remember his amazing sense of humor. He was never without a joke or funny story. No one could insert humor into a story like Robert.

Robert had a contagious smile. He often had that charming smile on his face and was always ready to engage in a variety of conversations – ranging from sports to politics.

Robert loved spending time with family and friends. He was an avid car player and an outstanding bowler. Baseball was his favorite sport and he was a devoted Orioles fan.

He was preceded in death by his brother Clarence Lee Bond, his sister Cleatrice (Bunch) Burly and grandson Robert Bond.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two daughters, Cynthia Renee Bennett and Ramona Noreen Johnson; one son, Robert Mack Bond (Bobby); two sons-in-law, Julian Bennett and Ronald Johnson; one daughter-in-law, Marlo Bond; one sister, Mattie Townsend; two brothers, Matt and Augustus (Gus) Bond; seven grandchildren, Jeterra, Chantille (Tiffany), Ronald, Crystal, April, Sterling and Tyler; great-grandchildren, and a host of loving relatives and friends.
