

Robert Lincoln Brown

March 13, 1947 - June 28, 2018

Robert Lincoln Brown, son of the late Adam Lincoln Carson and Louvenia Brown, was born March 13, 1947 in East Spencer, North Carolina. Robert departed this life after a lengthy illness.

Robert graduated from Dunbar High School in North Carolina and soon after joined the United States Air Force where he was an Aircraft Maintenance Specialist. Robert married his high school sweetheart, Diane Cherry and relocated to Baltimore, Maryland where they raised their three kids, Patricia, LaTrina and Robert Jr. After his divorce Robert had one daughter Latoya with Judy Williams of South Carolina.

Robert made a career for himself as correctional officer at the Maryland State Penitentiary where he retired as a Lieutenant.

Robert had a lot of friends and left an impression of everyone he met. He went by the name "Country Brown" at work and 50-03 on the cb radio. He enjoyed gardening, grilling out in the yard while playing cards with his co-workers, talking on the cb radio and helping people.

Carrying on his legacy he leaves behind: three daughters, Patricia A. Brown of Salisbury, NC, Latrina L. Brown of Edgewood, MD and Latoya Williamson of Florence, SC; and son, Robert L. Brown Jr. of Spencer, NC; son-in-law, Donta

Booker; three brothers, Gillie O. Torrence and John Paul Blackwell of Salibury, NC and Clinton Blackwell of Oklahoma, OK; two sisters, Valerie Patterson and Rose Mary Propst Salisbury, NC; four grandchildren, Madison Cooper, Isaiah Brown, Drake Booker and Jayden Williams; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I'm Robert's Great-Granddaughter. We called him Grandpa Bob. He was so funny and high spirited. His wife (my great-grandma) passes away this summer. She was buried right next to him. I wish them the best where they are now. They were in pain when they passed now they are comfortable and happy. ❤️
