

Robert Brunson

November 23, 1944 - July 11, 2006

ROBERT BRUNSON, JR., son of Landletter Blackshear and the late Robert Brunson, Sr., was born in Manning, Clarendon County, South Carolina. He departed this life on July 11, 2006, after a brief illness. He received his education at Manning Training School. At the age of eighteen he and his family moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Upon coming to Baltimore he worked several jobs until he finally settled at W. R. Grace in 1965, where he worked faithfully until his illness affected his ability to work and forced him to retire. In August 1976, Robert and Carolyn L. Fields united in marriage. They enjoyed traveling and sharing special moments together. Carolyn faithfully stood by his side until God called him home. Rob loved hunting, fishing, chess, partying, playing cards, shooting pool, riding his bike from coast to coast and living life to the fullest. He made friends everywhere he went. He was a man who got along with everyone, and he could brighten anyone's day. He leaves to mourn: his loving wife, Carolyn Brunson; three sons, Tony, Kevin and DeAngelo; five grandsons, three granddaughters; his mother, Landletter Blackshear; two sisters, Fannie M. Brunson and Dorothy Ross; one uncle, three aunts, four sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends including a special friend, Joseph "Joe" McLeod.

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Robert. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 Or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This was also true when it was written. But not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. First Corinthians 15:26 assures us that our "enemy death" will one day be destroyed. There is hope of our dead loved ones returning to life. Acts 24:15 says- "And I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and hope as you reflect on this loving promise from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Brunson. No doubt losing a love one in death is painful and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. However, Christ Jesus taught that someday "all those in the memorial tombs" will be resurrected. (John 5:28) Yes, it is truly heartwarming to learn that Almighty God Jehovah and his son Jesus yearns to bring back our dead love ones back to life. May this too be a source of encouragement to you.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family, you have my deepest sympathy. Death is such a painful reality in all of our lives, which we can never understand or get used to. It's like an unreality, and it cuts so deeply. My heart goes out to you in your sorrow. One day the scourge of sickness and death will be done away with, and we will be reunited with our loved ones again. Daniel 12:2 tells us, There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Yes Jehovah likens death to a deep sleep, which only he has the power to awaken us from. He will do this, because he is a God of love. 1stJohn 4:8. He yearns for his earthly children to live again forever in peace and happiness. May his promises sustain you through this painful time.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
