“ *Please accept my deepest condolences on the death of your dear Mr. Colbert. May you draw much comfort from the promises found in Gods' Word the Bible . There at John 5:28,29 we read ,in part "Do not marvel at this, the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out....". You see, death is unnatural. It was never The Creators original purpose for mankind to die (Genesis 1:28). That is why it can be so difficult to comprehend. As a matter of fact. God hates death, and soon he will end its' existence forever (1 Corinthians 15:26). Soon, we will welcome back our dead loved ones. There are nine documented cases of the resurrection recorded for us to examine. John 11:11-44, 2 Kings 4:32-37, and Mark 5:35-42 are some of those. This resurrection will be to a world of peace, perfect health, and never ending life for all righteous (Psalms 37:9-11, Revelation 21:3,4, and Isaiah 55:11). I hope the pain in your hearts is gently soothed by this very real, and soon to be realized hope. Sincerely,
Mrs. D. Ward Michigan
