

Robert Coleman

October 6, 1926 - May 4, 2002

Robert Coleman, the son of the late Thomas and Eulah Coleman, was born in Camel, Virginia on October 6, 1926. In 1928, he relocated with his parents to Baltimore City. Robert, fondly known as “ Bob”, graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar Senior High School. On November 20, 1965, Bob was united in Holy Matrimony with Catherine Doswell and from this union there was one daughter, Robyn. In September 1988, he gave his life to the Lord and joined Mount Moriah Baptist Church, where he served as a member on the Board of Trustees. The City of Baltimore employed Bob for 42 years, retiring in 1992. He was extremely dedicated, always willing to give of his time whenever he was needed. Bob was a proud and devoted husband, father and friend who was a source of strength and happiness to all that knew him. He was sensitive, warm, and giving husband and father who dedicated his life to surrounding his family with love and joy. Bob was an easy-going fun loving person who will be dearly missed, but never forgotten by family and friends. Bob leaves to cherish fond and loving memories: his beloved wife, Catherine Coleman; his daughters, Robyn Coleman Tyler and Sharon Rogers; two grand-daughters and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
