

Robert Lee Collins Jr.

July 30, 1970 - January 6, 2021

ROBERT LEE COLLINS JR. was born to the late Agnes Collins-Campbell and late Robert Lee Collins, Sr. on July 30, 1970. On Wednesday, January 6, 2021, he was called home to the Lord.

Robert (“OJ”, “Robbie”) received his early education in the public schools of Baltimore City. After serving several years in the U.S. Military, he came home and pursued his love for driving. He got a job, parking cars, and quickly rose to a manager position. Eventually he enrolled himself into All-State Career school and earned a Commercial Driver’s License. OJ loved driving trucks and could not see himself in any other profession.

Under the guidance of his late parents he received his Christian education, and was baptized by the late Rev. Dr. Lorenzo Graves, at Calvary Baptist Church.

Robert “OJ” was someone you could depend on. Even while arguing, he would still be asking you “Well what do you want?” or “Where do you need to go?” He loved his family and would do anything he could to help, especially when it came to his mother (Agnes) and his children.

He leaves to mourn his wife, Lakenya; his two sons, Raekwon and Da’Quan; his two daughters, Shaniece and Anniesha; his three grandsons, Will “Willie”,

Sevyn, Cho'zen; a brother, Ronald "Ronnie"; one sister-in-law, Shaneka; one brother-in-law, Chie White; six aunts, Jeanette Johnson, Edwerta Boone, Catherine Capel, Margaret Collins, Peggy Collins, Kathy Collins; one uncle, Alfred Collins; a cousin who he considered a brother, Tyrone Jackson Jr. "TJ"; his special little buddy who called him "Pop-pop", Timir "Chink"; and numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, close friends, and acquaintances

“ There are no words for such an unimaginable loss. Even as I shed tears of your passing; I'm honored to have called you a "cousin". Not just cousin; but an EXCEPTIONAL cousin. I'll miss your texts, pictures, and especially hearing your voice but I have the memories. There are no goodbyes. Where ever you'll be; you'll always be in our hearts. Love ya Robbie.
