“ I just found out today that my friend passed. He just had lunch with me and my daughter Gail May 27th the day after my birthday and now I find out he died a week later. I tried calling him but did not get an answer and knew something was wrong. I have been searching for him. I found him today in the obituaries at March Funeral Home. I will cherish the memory of our last lunch together.

“ I worked with Robert at SSA for many years. It was a pleasure working with him, he was always pleasant, respectful, and funny. When he retired, he never failed to keep in contact with his friends. He was always available for birthdays, family reunions and social gatherings. He will be missed. Ms. M. Boddie

“ My Uncle Cookie was always the one to keep a smile on all the kids faces. Even as an adult he would still tell me to come here so I can pull your nose. When I had children he continued his own tradition to tell them to be bad as he gave us all hugs before we would get in the car to drive away. I would hardly ever have to check the weather report in the winter because all I needed to do was check my text messages and Uncle Weatherman would make sure I knew if there was snow coming and if the kids would be home from school that day. I will miss his sense of humor and loving smile and always remember the love he made sure we felt when he was with us and when he wasnt. Thanks for the Love Uncle Cookie From Kat, Talaija and Kaiya

Even though I know we all have to pass this way, I am still saddened to know my friend has gone. Because of circumstances, we hadn't seen each other in years but whenever our paths would cross he was always the same and I always knew I mattered to him. Rest in Peace, Robert. You were loved and you will be missed.
