

Robert D. Johnson

October 6, 1921 - June 23, 2003

Robert D. Johnson, son of the late Preston and Maggie Johnson, was born on October 6, 1921 in Portsmouth, Virginia. He departed this life on June 23, 2003, after an abrupt illness. He was educated within the Portsmouth, Virginia public school system. At the early age of 10, he became employed at a Tobacco Company and later by American Brake Shoes of Portsmouth. In 1941, he married Sophia A. Williams, and out of this union three children were born: Mary, Gracie and Robert. During the 1980's he moved to Baltimore, Maryland where he worked for Sullivan's Construction Company. He was very independent, friendly and would do anything for anyone. He was well known as "Yak". To know him was to love him. He leaves to mourn: one son, Robert Johnson; two daughters, Mary M. Johnson and Gracie L. Pulliam; step children, Harold McFarland, Katherine Hicks, Gloria Jacobs, and Ethel McFarland; daughters-in-law, Denise Johnson and Rosaland McFarland; sons-in-law, Thomas Pullium and Rick Jacobs; eleven grandchildren, , Denise, Nickie, Kristy, DeOndre, Angel, Ebony, Cameron, Brandon, Clifton, Robin, and Lisa; eleven great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.
