

Robert Dorsey Andrews

September 23, 1930 - January 13, 2010

Robert Dorsey Andrews of 513 Milton Street, Richmond, Virginia, entered eternal rest on Wednesday, January 13, 2010. Robert was a native of Richmond, Virginia and was educated in the Richmond Public School System. As a young man Robert answered the call of the United States Army, there he served for eight years. As Robert was about to return to civilian life he met and married Delores I. Mason and from this union was born his only son Marshall. Being the hard worker that he was Robert's path led him to Atlantic Coast Line, which is now CSX Railroad. He spend approximately 27 years working as a Trackman. Through out his career on the Railroad he became well known up and down the tracks; where he was called by several nicknames; Dorsey, Bill Bow, Jeter and Billy. Robert attended Saint Peter Catholic Church faithfully and was always known to give an encouraging word when needed, he was a very humble and grateful man. Robert leaves to cherish his memory, son; Marshall (Sheila), three grandsons; Marshall (Francine), Dimitric and CroVotus. Great grand-daughter; Jade Andrews and Torey Ward. A very special and devoted companion; Adeline Murray. A host of devoted friends; Ryland (Rylee) Jones, Fred (Chico) Wooldridge, Jr., Clint Alston, Herman Taylor, Travis Vincent and Frank Creer (known as the "Dirty Dozen"). Robert's memory will live on in the hearts and minds of his family and friends.
