

Robert Edward Blake

March 16, 1922 - October 25, 2003

Robert Edward Blake son of the late John and Lottie Emory Blake was born March 16, 1922 in Easton, Maryland. He peacefully departed this life at the Baltimore Rehabilitation and Extended Care Center (BRECC) on October 25, 2003 at 11:30 p.m. Robert was the oldest of six children. He was educated in the Talbot County Public School System. He served in the Navy and was awarded ribbons for his service. Robert worked for Cloverland Dairy Farm in Dulaney Valley where he was an agricultural worker until retirement. He lived in the Long Green, MD community for years until relocating to Sparks, MD to live closer to his family in Glencoe, MD. Robert married Alice Sarah Helen Ringgold in 1949. Their two children Alice Louise and the late Robert Sylvester Blake added love, affection and pride to their family. He enjoyed gardening, watching the evening news and baseball games on television. Until his illness he never missed attending the Maryland State Fair Ground Guernsey Cattle judging the Sunday before Labor Day. Robert was a family man. He loved his grandchildren and enjoyed interacting with his nieces, nephews and family members. Robert leaves to cherish memories of his life, a devoted wife, Alice Ringgold Blake; a loving and devoted daughter, Alice Ringgold Hayes; two grandchildren, Leslie Asante Hayes and Robert Sylvester Blake Jr. (Robbie); one sister, Lillian Blake Sherwood; two brothers, John Blake and Richard Blake; one daughter-in-law, Laverne Whye Blake; five sisters-in-law, Helen Blake, Jeanette Blake, Edna Maddox, Emily Ringgold, and Olga Wallace; two brothers-in-law, William Maddox and Kenneth Ringgold; nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends. Robert also leaves a goddaughter, Felecia Ringgold Scott to cherish loving memories.
