

Robert Louis Fuller

March 1, 1924 - February 24, 2013

Robert Louis Fuller was born on March 1, 1924 in Henderson, North Carolina, to parents Edward and Annie Fuller. He attended school in North Carolina. He relocated to Virginia in the late 1950's.

Robert married Emily "Bea" in June 1963, where they have lived their blessed married union for the last 49 years.

Robert had a strong work ethic, and had been a self-employed contractor/painter for over 35 years prior to retiring.

Robert was an avid pool player, in his younger years, that he earned the name of "Green Cap". He apparently won a lot of pool games, so he would tell it. He loved to laugh and had a great sense of humor.

He was a man that believed in God, although not a big church goer, but he was saved and knew Jesus Christ, as his Lord and Savior.

He was a very giving man that believed in helping anyone, family or stranger. He was taught early to "Love your neighbor."

Robert leaves to cherish his memories, a loving and beloved wife, Emily; three daughters, Robin Winston, Tracey Henry and Pamela Bishop; three sons, Mark

Smith, Glen Smith and Alan Smith; two grandchildren, three sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *To the family of Robert Louis Fuller:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
