

Robert R Goode Jr.

November 16, 1958 - June 30, 2025

ROBERT RANDOLPH GOODE Jr. ("Bob"), son of Rachel Baker and Robert Goode Sr., was born on November 16, 1958, in Baltimore, Maryland. He was called home on June 30, 2025.

He completed his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and was a proud graduate of Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, Class of 1976. Shortly after graduating, he began working at Bethlehem Steel, where he remained a dedicated and hardworking employee as a welder for over 30 years.

Bob cherished life's simple pleasures. Whether relaxing in his favorite chair watching football or cheering for his beloved Baltimore Ravens, he found joy in the small moments. A true Ravens fan through and through, he never missed a game and wore his purple and black with pride.

He especially enjoyed traveling and loved going on cruises, where he could unwind, enjoy the ocean breeze, and make lasting memories with family and friends.

More than anything, he loved his grandchildren. They were the light of his life, and he treasured every laugh, hug, and memory shared with them.

Known as the life of the party, Bob brought energy and joy wherever he went. His sense of humor, warm personality, and contagious laughter always left people smiling. His presence could light up a room, and his spirit made every gathering one to remember.

He was known for his quiet strength, loyalty, and deep love for his family and friends. His presence brought comfort to those around him, and his work ethic and dependability left a lasting impression on everyone who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his father Robert Goode Sr., daughter Adara Goode, brothers Willard Marshall and Boyce Goode, and sister Rosemary Johnson.

Bob's memory will be cherished by his son Artemis Goode, mother Rachel Baker, four grandchildren Artemis Jr., Halo, Logan, and Exodus, nine siblings Tina, Shayne, Shawn, Raymond, Janice, Vernon, Sybil, Catherine, and Edith, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.

Bob will always be remembered for his dedication, joy for life, love for his grandchildren and unwavering love for those closest to him.
