June 27, 1936 - September 16, 2010

ROBERT L. GROSS, the oldest of five children, of Mary and John Gross was born in June 27, 1936. He departed this life after a very long illness on September 16, 2010.

He was affectionately called “Lee Lee”. Young Lee worked many years along side his father and brother Herbert in the family owned business. He delivered ice, wood and coal to homes in South Baltimore.

Lee attended Harvey Johnson Middle School and Carver Vocational Technical High School. Later in life, Lee attended Bay College Institute. Lee worked at Bricksford's Restaurant and the Blaustein Building's Maintenance Department. Lee volunteered his time at the Peal Museum and the Carroll Mansion House. Lee, was the founder and short term operator of “The Madhatters Disco.”

Lee Lee loved a party, he was a great dancer and would do the “Madison” with his sister, Dottie, for hours. He loved his family and would remember everyone's birthday by sending beautiful cards and flowers. At Future Care Nursing Home, he was always talking about the accomplishments of his nieces and nephews. He was very proud of them.

Lee accepted Christ and was baptized. He later joined St. James Free Baptist Church. He loved to talk about his Pastor and First Lady. He said, “they were the most loving couple he knew.” Lee would always talk about the goodness of the Lord. He was a joy to visit because he was so pleasant. The staff at Future Care enjoyed his presence and he enjoyed their help.

Preceding him in death are his sister, Dorothy Gross; father, John Gross; brother-in-law, Thomas Boddie; and beloved aunt, Lillian Brown.

Lee leaves to mourn: his mother, Mary Gross; two sisters, Mary Boddie (Peaches) and Estelle Cyrus; brother, Herbert; sister-in-law, Bertha Gross; brother-in-law, Derrick Cyrus. Lee also leaves aunts, uncles and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
